Judge James H. Wilkerson to-day deferred hearing on the motion of at orneys for the rail strike leaders for modification of the temporary restraining order pending completion of the Government's effort to show that he dominant purpose of the alleged conspiracy is the destruction of interstate commerce:

Citing the court decision in the Coronado coal case, retail lumber fealers' case and the Patton cotton orner prosecution, Judge Wilkerson aid the question raised by the Gov ernment's allegation was a vital one and should be settled before the reuest for modification of the present eder can be acted on.

Blackburn Esterline, assistant to be Solicitor General, resumed the resentation of the Government's evilence with the reading of affidavits and reports covering interference with fruit shipments from the State of Washington, and figures on accidents due to faulty railroad equipment. The report showed that of 67,926 locomo tives on railroads reporting, 7,506 were out of service during the entire month of July, while 48,835 were "e-orted for inspection and repairs. Reports of the Interstate Commerce ommission were presented showing eight cars required repairs on July.

The percentage increased to 15.1 n July 15, and reached 15.3 per cent m Aug. 1 It fell to 14.8 per cent,
